

ELEPHANT TALES

GOP friends,

This month's Elephant Tales comes at a significantly stranger time than just a month ago. I hope you are all doing well, staying safe and healthy, and checking up on one another. As we find our footing in what seems like will be the new normal for a little while, my prayer is that each of you is not only healthy during this time, but finds a way to thrive. Whether that be in your business, with your family, or with your faith, my hope is that every aspect of your life is heightened because of this pandemic. That may sound weird to some, but I believe this has reminded us what is important to us in life and how fragile that life can be. Take care, God bless, and please do stay in touch!

Sincerely,

Zach Rodgers
